New Zealand's Mount Taranaki is now legally a person

A mountain in New Zealand is now legally recognised as a person after being granted all the rights and responsibilities of a human.

It is part of an agreement between New Zealand's government and the indigenous Maori tribes, which have long considered the 2518 metres tall mountain an ancestor. How tall is Mount Taranaki in:

- (a) centimetres? (b) millimetres? (c) kilometres?

Netflix hikes prices in UK - as customers left 'frustrated'

Netflix has increased its subscription prices for customers in the UK. The new price for a standard subscription without adverts, has risen by £2 to £12.99 a month, while the same subscription with adverts has risen by £1.

The streaming service's most expensive premium subscription, which allows people to watch on four devices at the same time, is also increasing by £1 to £18.99 a month.

- (a) How much extra will a subscriber have to pay for a standard subscription per year?

This follows on from Netflix recent crackdown on password sharing. Netflix's policy is that accounts are intended for use by people who live in the same household. Sharing a password with people outside of your household may violate Netflix's terms of service.

So your best bet may well be to pick a random account and try to guess the password!

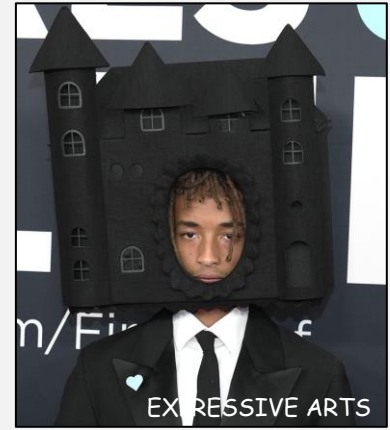

With this in mind, here are the top 9 most frequently used passwords in the world!

How many of them can you guess??? Top 9 most frequently used passwords
