His long career in show business began when he was aged just 14. In what year did his show business career start?

Man Is Giving Away His Porsche For £20 But Says He'll Make 'Thousands'

Way back in issue 38 of the Daily Rigour you may remember we told you about a man who was raffling his £650 000 mansion for £2 a ticket. You may also have seen him on the One Show this week.

Now Ed Bezzant, from London, is going to be raffling off his Porsche Cayman for £20 a ticket. He aims to sell 2500 tickets.

The cost price of a brand new Porsche 718 Cayman, is £42 897.

If he meets his ticket target, how much profit does Ed stand to make?

Mo Farah wins silver in final major track race

Just as with Usain Bolt in his farewell 100m exactly a week earlier, Farah's final big 5000m proved a race too far at last week's World Championships.

The winner, Muktar Edris, even had the audacity to celebrate with a 'Mobot' as Britain's most successful track-field-athlete collapsed to the floor in tears.

How much quicker was Muktar Edris than Mo Farah?
