

The Daily Rigour

Sun 28th May 2017

Issue No. 53

Your free weekly numeracy newspaper!

Value of fish landings in Scotland reaches record high

The value of fish landings in Scotland reached a new record last year. In 2016 the value of the country's catch hit more than half a billion pounds to stand at a new £563 million high.

Mackerel continues to be the most valuable stock brought to shore and accounts for £169m of Scottish landings, the Scottish Government statistics showed.

What percentage of Scotland's total fish landings from 2016 came from mackerel? Round your answer to the nearest percent.

The Chase returns to our screens on Monday at 5pm!

When The Chase team packed up the studio for their summer holidays, handing over their coveted 5pm slot to Rylan Clark-Neal and his new game show Babushka, they couldn't have realised what a furore it would cause. But it hadn't been axed, it was just on a break. And now it's returning to our screens!

Series 1 debuted on the 29th of June 2009 for 10 episodes. Series 2 and 3 had 4 times as many episodes as series 1. Series 4 had 50% more episodes than series 3. Series 5 had double the amount of episodes as series 4. Series 6, 7 and 8 each had a quarter more episodes than series 5. Series 9 and 10 each had the same number of episodes as series 1, 4 and 5 combined. Series 11, when finished, will contain 20 less episodes than series 10.

At the end of series 11, how many episodes of the Chase will have been shown on UK TV altogether?

Heavy rain and floods to hit Scotland after heatwave

Heavy rain, flooding, thunder and lightning will hit Scotland in the wake of the current heatwave.

This is despite the fact the country enjoyed its hottest day of the year so far on Friday, after temperatures peaked at 29.4°C in Lossiemouth!

The temperature highs in Glasgow this week were:

17°C, 18°C, 18°C, 19°C, 26°C, 22°C, and 20°C

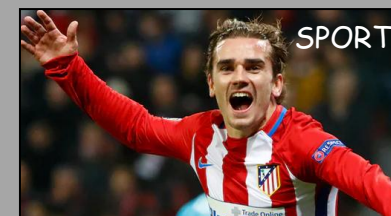

What was the mean temperature in Glasgow this week?

Antoine Griezmann: I have six out of ten chance of Manchester United move

Antoine Griezmann has said there is a six out of 10 chance of him joining Manchester United this summer. The Atlético Madrid forward has been consistently linked with a move to Old Trafford in recent months and it now seems there could be some substance to speculation about an £85m move.

According to Griezmann himself, what is the probability of him joining Manchester United? Give your answer as a fraction, a decimal and a percentage.

by Cdmasterworks Ltd