

The Daily Rigour

Sun 27th November 2016

Issue No. 28

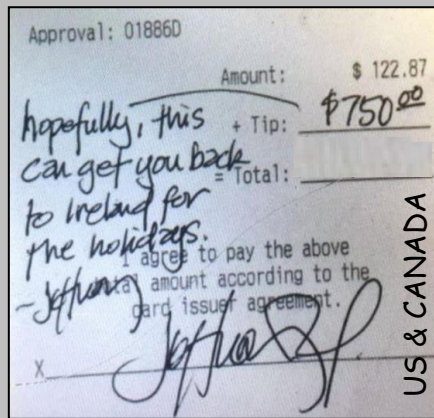

Your free weekly numeracy newspaper!

Texas diner tips waiter $750!

A waiter in Texas was given a $750 tip by a diner after mentioning he had not seen his family in Northern Ireland for more than two years.

A note on the dinner receipt read: "Hopefully, this can get you back to Ireland for the holidays."

The waiter finds a cheap return flight costing £595. Given that the current exchange rate is £1 = $1.25, will the tip cover the air fare?

French heir finds gold hoard underneath furniture in house

A Frenchman who inherited a large house from a relative has found an astonishing 100kg haul of gold hidden under the furniture.

There were 5000 identical gold pieces, two bars of 12kg and 37 ingots each weighing 1kg.

What is the weight of 1 gold coin?

Give your answer in grams.

Black Friday sales rush reported by retailers

UK shoppers have rushed to buy Black Friday bargains, as retailers and payment firms report strong sales activity for the annual discount event.

Online retailers said initial figures indicated Black Friday, now into its third year, had topped expectations.

The following electrical stores have the same television on offer for Black Friday. Which shop is offering the cheapest price?

by Cdmasterworks

£480

Tellys R Us
10% off!

£600

Telly Heaven
33 $\frac{1}{3}$ % off!

£750

TV WORLD
40% off!

Corona founder makes everyone in village he grew up in a millionaire!

It's unlikely you will have heard of Cerezales del Condado, but chances are you'll wish you were from there!

All 80 residents in the sleepy Spanish village have just been made millionaires courtesy of one of their very own sons.

Antonino Fernández, the billionaire founder of Corona, gifted £168 million, to be shared equally between each of the residents, in his will after dying aged 99.

How much did they each receive?

What products are people looking for?

■ % of those planning to spend on Black Friday

RETAIL

