

The Daily Rigour

Sunday 29th May 2016

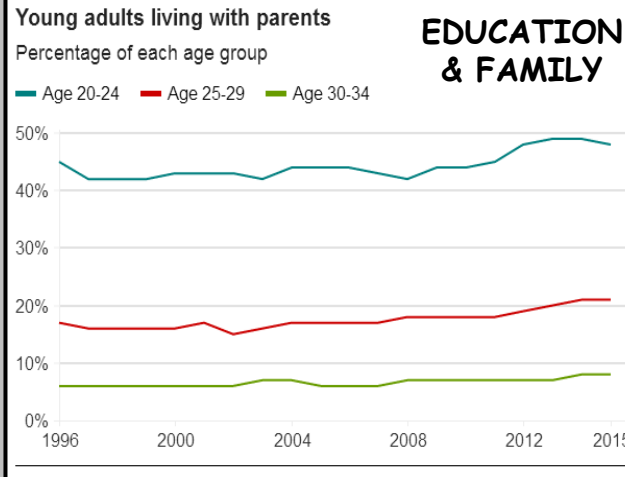

Issue No. 1

Your free weekly numeracy newspaper!

A million more youngsters to live with parents, says Aviva

2.85 million young people between 21 and 34 currently live with their parents. This figure is expected to rise by a third by 2025 due to the affordability of housing. How many people in this age range are expected to live with their parents in 2025?

Miliband 'call to arms' for young voters

Ed Miliband said in a speech that 25% of the six million 18-24 year olds eligible to vote in the EU referendum are not registered. How many voters are not registered?

Britain's Got Talent final draws lowest audience in show's history.

9.7 million people tuned in to see Army bandsman and magician Richard Jones be announced the winner. This is compared to 17 million tuning in to see Diversity win in 2009. How many more people watched the final in 2009? Give your answer in WORDS.

Murray wins again!

Andy Murray takes 2 hours and 40 minutes to see off John Isner to make the French Open quarter finals for the sixth time in his career. The match finished at 18:18. What time did it start?

Tomorrow's Weather Forecast

Antarctica = -49°C

Glasgow = RISE of 70°C

What is the temperature in Glasgow tomorrow?

Entertainment

by Cdmasterworks Ltd