

The Daily Rigour

Sun 11th November 2018

Issue No. 127

Your free weekly numeracy newspaper!

Spice Girls announce 2019 reunion tour, but they're leaving Posh at home

It's the news every Spice Girls fan has been waiting for - the girls are going back on tour, 23 years after they first spiced up our lives.

But Baby, Ginger, Scary and Sporty will be without their fifth member - Posh.

Express the number of Spice Girls participating in the reunion tour as a fraction, decimal and percentage.

Ross Edgley sets record for round Great Britain swim

An adventurer from Grantham has become the first person to swim 1780 miles around Great Britain.

Ross left Margate in Kent on the 1st of June, and did not set foot on land since he finished his challenge on the 4th of November. He kept himself going by eating lots of his favourite food - 628 bananas to be precise!

- How many days did it take Ross to complete his swim?
- How many bananas did he eat per day?
- On average, how many miles did he swim per day?

Round your answer to the nearest mile.

Cdmasterworks Ltd

Netflix chief Reed Hastings ready for Disney Plus battle

The boss of Netflix, Reed Hastings, has said he is looking forward to going up against Disney when it launches its online streaming service, Disney Plus, next year.

"We've been competing with Amazon for more than 10 years, so we're used to healthy, strong competition," he said.

Netflix already has 130 million paid memberships with a standard subscription costing $7.99 per month.

If each subscriber only paid for the standard subscription, how much money would Netflix earn in a year?

Can you write this number in WORDS???

BUSINESS

Retailers shut 15 shops per day in first half of the year

About 15 shops are closing every day as UK High Streets face their toughest trading climate in five years, a report has found.

This figure was taken from Britain's top 500 high streets in the first six months of the year.

How many shops in total disappeared from these high streets in the first six months of the year?

