Thomas Cook ex-boss grilled over bonus

Thomas Cook's ex-boss has been grilled over a bonus payment and said he was not the only one to blame for the holiday firm's collapse.

The former chief executive said that he received a £750 000 bonus in 2017 - two thirds of which was in cash, the rest was in shares.

- (a) How much of a bonus did he receive in cash?
- (b) If the cash part of his bonus was shared equally between the 21 000 staff members instead, how much would they each have received?

New apple set to be a 'core' favourite

Starting to hit grocery shelves in the USA, and then overseas early in 2020, is a new American-born apple called the Cosmic Crisp.

A cross-breed between two existing apples it is said to be sweet, crisp and juicy.

But as importantly, it is said to have a previously unheralded shelf life, staying fresh for up to a year if kept chilled.

A typical apple tree can produce up to 500 apples in a year, with a productive life of 15 to 20 years.

What is the maximum number of apples a typical apple tree can produce in it's lifetime?

Friends star Jennifer Aniston claims record for fastest to reach one million Instagram followers

Friends star Jennifer Aniston has taken Instagram by storm, joining the platform and rapidly setting a new record for the fastest time to reach one million followers in just 5 hours and 16 minutes.

- (a) On average, how many followers did she gain per second until she hit one million?
- (b) Can you guess the 10 people with the most followers on Instagram?
